

Bio

Robert B. Corshen
Director, Local Food System
Community Alliance with Family Farmers

A graduate of the University of Vermont, with B.S in Agricultural Economics, Mr. Corshen's career spans 50+ years of Agri-business experience. Having experience in sales, marketing, processing and distribution of fresh and processed food products, he has held positions as warehouseman, production manager, salesman, V.P Marketing, C.O.O and owner of a frozen food manufacturer. Bob recently returned from Suriname, South America where he served as a Peace Corps volunteer with the Inter American Institute for Cooperation in Agriculture (IICA). He joined CAFF in March 2009 where he is the Director of their Local Food Systems group.