

Valerie Miller, RD - Bio

Valerie Miller, RD, is the Education Coordinator for the SDSU Foundation WIC Program in San Diego, California. She has worked in a variety of positions in WIC over the past 13 years. Most recently, Valerie was a member of the Healthy Habits Campaign team, a collaboration of Sesame Street and the National WIC Association. The team created training and nutrition education materials that prepared both WIC staff and participants for the new WIC food package.